

The Author

Jolie DeMarco, is an author, healer, psychic, intuitive, “messenger of the light” from channeled angelic sources as well as a spiritually- inspired mandala artist. She founded My Flora Aura, a unique, mindful healing center in Boca Raton Florida, designed to create a place of community for others. Through her work, Jolie has established a worldwide clientele. Psychologists, acupuncturists, energy healers as well as people from all walks of life, young and old, male and female have been drawn to her art, books, lectures, projects and channeled Angelic messages. She has been the subject of articles in magazines including Palm Beach Women, Holistic, and Boca Raton Magazine which recently credited her with being “dead on” most accurate intuitive within all of South Florida. She has been a guest on radio shows including “Above Top Secret ATS Live”, “World Peace Radio” and many more. Jolie receives messages from Angels and with this information, she teaches. She quickly earned her nickname, “Messenger of the Light”, as word of her talks grew.

Through her work, Jolie found many of her clients were in need of self-healing techniques. Jolie believes in teaching and sharing knowledge with others to empower them to self-heal instead of “other-reliant” modalities that are often unproductive and complicated. Jolie created simple, self-healing techniques that bring people positive and self-sustaining results and empowerment of the soul. She has helped her clients understand the concept of the Soul Talking technique[™] and how relations effect the energy of everyone. This technique brings self-power and positive outcomes for all those involved. This is a term Jolie calls “equal energy exchanges”. Energy exchanges and soul talking are the process of release, relief and equality of the energy of one’s self.

Jolie guides people to a positive path without enabling them. Jolie believes power is in the self, the core of a person which is their soul energy. This soul energy is within everyone and everyone can learn how to keep that energy pure and happy. Jolie teaches techniques for people to follow with step- by- step instructions that make it easy to comprehend and includes documented, positive results. People who have experimented and tried this modality and the soul talking techniques express their proof by literally “feeling the energy shift and positive exchanges that are equal with them and others they soul talk with”. Soul talking with equal energy exchanges brings ultimate empowerment to oneself and to other people. Positive, happy people are the goal.

Jolie's prolific output of creative projects, writing, speaking and teaching had an amazing beginning as she painted 30 mandalas in 30 days. She became extremely productive and spiritually enhanced the day she clairaudiently heard a voice ask her to draw a sacred geometry mandala painting on her wall. After that, she was asked to write a book of self-healing with another 30 mandalas that were specifically for other people to use as tools to meditate and advance in their lives. The energy of these special mandalas would draw in a person to know more about themselves and continue bringing that person positive energies that could move them to a point of balance. These mandalas would balance them emotionally, mentally and spiritually as needed. Jolie channeled these special messages as she painted the 30 mandalas in 30 days and was to share them with other people in her mindful healing center. She has been contacted worldwide for this incredible self-reading and self-healing mandala oracle card deck. Currently they are used for personal healing, self-reading and powerful messages in the US, China and UK. Many psychologists use this oracle deck for insight on their patients.
